2024-2025 Financial Affidavit International Graduate Students - Master of Arts in History

Under U.S. law, the University must have evidence of adequate financial resources, before issuing an I-20 form. Complete this form and attach official banking documentation to it. Keep copies of all financial documents submitted, as you will need to present the same information to the U.S. consulate or embassy when obtaining a visa. You may be requested to show it again when you pass through Immigration inspection coming into the U.S.

Estimate of expenses for one academic year* at Houston Christian University, 2024-2025:

Tuition and Fees: $12,910.00
Room and Board: $12,928.00
Books, Insurance, and Supplies: $1,000.00
Transportation: $1,900.00
Personal expenses: $2,802.00
TOTAL: $31,540.00

*Amounts listed are a total estimate for the Fall and Spring Semesters. They are subject to change.

THIS IS NOT A PAYMENT TO HOUSTON CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY and IS ONLY FOR THE PURPOSES OF PROVIDING
REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION FOR THE F1 STUDENT VISA. Any misrepresentation of funds and non-payment of student accounts are grounds for I-20 denial or visa cancellation.
