

Houston Christian UNIVERSITY

Go Team Leader

New Student Orientation (“GO”) is a pivotal time for all incoming HCU freshmen because it offers a glimpse of the university that will play a defining role in their lives over the next four years. Not only does GO provide an opportunity for incoming students to become acclimated to HCU’s campus and prepare them to start taking their classes in the Fall, but it is also a time for new students to forge bonds and build fellowship with one another. The Office of Admissions is looking for dedicated student leaders who are committed to creating a positive orientation experience for all incoming HCU Freshmen as they embark on one of their first steps of their HCU journey.

Position Requirements:

- A minimum 2.5 GPA (cumulative).
- Ability to guide and counsel incoming students.
- Adherence to HCU Code of Conduct.

Position Responsibilities:

- Attend and help facilitate all summer orientation (GO) sessions (4 two-day sessions in June)
- Attend 3 monthly GO Team trainings in the Spring.
- Attend 1 week-long GO Team training in the Summer.

Position Benefits:

- Students will be compensated with a stipend for their efforts.
- Opportunity to make a difference in the lives of other students.

- Opportunity to pour into the lives of HCU Freshmen and their families.
- Development of leadership skills.
- Professional development.
