

Retention of Undergraduate Students Fall 2010 to Fall 2011

Executive Summary

This report tracks the enrollment patterns of undergraduate students enrolled in the Fall 2010 term. Using the Banner system, students were classified as enrolled, withdrawn, or graduated for Fall 2011. Those classified as graduated received their degrees in Fall 2010, Spring 2011, or Summer 2011. The tables that follow look at four different (but overlapping) cohorts of students: all undergraduates, new freshmen, new freshmen who were provisionally admitted, and new transfer students.

The overall retention rate for undergraduates who did not graduate rose almost two percent, to 70.2%. The retention gains were concentrated in minority students – minority student retention rose 3.4%, while non-minority retention dropped just over one percent. For new freshmen, the retention rate is up almost five percent from last year's rate of 62.6%, to 67.2%. As with the overall undergraduate rate, the increase is concentrated in minority students – minority student retention rose almost seven percent, while non-minority retention rose just over two percent. The retention rate for provisional admits rose by 2.5%, from just under 42% to 44.4%; however, there were significantly fewer provisionals in Fall 2010 than in Fall 2009. The retention rate for new transfers dropped slightly, from 54.9% to 53.9%. The retention rates for students classified as Juniors was essentially unchanged after adjusting for graduates, while the retention rates for Seniors rose 6%.

Main Report

This report tracks the enrollment patterns of the 2,179 undergraduate students enrolled in Fall 2010 who were classified Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, or Seniors. Students who entered in Summer 2010 were counted as new students (either freshman or transfer) in Fall 2010 as well. Nineteen postbaccalaureate students from the total undergraduate enrollment of 2,198 have been excluded.

Retention percentages for the various cohorts for Fall 2010 to Fall 2011 are below. Also included are the rates from previous years for comparison. Reports for each year can be found at <http://www.hbu.edu/ire>.

Cohort	Fall 2010 to Fall 2011	Fall 2009 to Fall 2010	Fall 2008 to Fall 2009	Fall 2007 to Fall 2008	Fall 2006 to Fall 2007
Undergraduate Students	70.2%	68.4%	74.1%	74.3%	73.7%
New Freshmen	67.2%	62.6%	72.3%	70.4%	70.1%
Provisional Admit Students	44.4%	41.9%	55.6%	62.5%	59.4%
New Transfer Students	53.9%	54.9%	56.0%	65.9%	63.1%

Of the 2,179 undergraduate students enrolled in Fall 2010:

- 326 (15.0%) graduated in December 2010, May 2011, or August 2011
- 552 (25.3%) did not return for Fall 2011
- 1,301 (59.7%) reenrolled for Fall 2011

After adjusting for graduates, the undergraduate retention rate was 70.2%. See Section 1, page 4, for more details.

Compared to the Fall 2009 to Fall 2010 retention rates, retention was generally up with a few subgroups showing slight declines. Both males and females were up about 2.5%; retention of minority students was up significantly (3.4%) while non-minority students showed a slight decline. Students with SAT scores in the range 900-1090 showed modest decreases in retention compared to last year. The retention of non-graduating seniors jumped six percent, from 72.9% to 78.9%. Students living in the Lake House had the lowest retention (65.5%) of all residence categories, including off-campus.

Of the 516 new freshmen enrolled in Fall 2010:

- 169 (32.8%) did not return for Fall 2011
- 347 (67.2%) reenrolled for Fall 2011

The retention rate for new freshmen was 67.2%. See Section 2, page 10 for more details.

As with all undergraduates, the retention of new freshmen was up for most categories as compared to the Fall 2009 to Fall 2010 rates. The retention rate for females increased more than the rate for males. Retention of minority new freshmen was up significantly (5.7%) while non-minority students showed an increase of 2.2%. In terms of test scores, students with an SAT score between 1200 and 1290 had a decreased retention rate (down six percent), while students above 1300 showed an increase of six percent. Looking at academic index, all levels except Level 5 (the lowest) showed gains in retention.

Of the 36 new provisionally admitted students in Fall 2010:

- 20 (55.6%) did not return for Fall 2011
- 16 (44.4%) reenrolled for Fall 2011

The retention rate for new provisionally admitted students was 44.4%. See Section 3, page 16 for more details.

Comparison of retention rates for provisional admits is somewhat problematic due to the large decrease in provisionals from Fall 2009 to Fall 2010 . Overall, the retention rate for provisionals rose from 41.9% to 44.4% while the number of provisionals dropped from 86 in Fall 2009 to 36 in Fall 2010. Provisionals with SAT scores between 900 and 990 actually showed a six percent increase in retention rate. Provisionals with an academic index in Level 5 had a significantly lower retention rate than those in Levels 3 or 4.

Of the 206 new transfer students in Fall 2010:

- 0 (0.0%) graduated in December 2010, May 2011, or August 2011
- 95 (46.1%) did not return for Fall 2011
- 111 (53.9%) reenrolled for Fall 2011

After adjusting for graduates, the retention rate for new transfers was 53.9%. See Section 4, page 22, for more details.

Transfer retention was down only slightly, exactly one percent. Most of this decrease was in female and minority transfers; female transfer retention was down nearly five percent, while minority retention was down slightly more than one percent.

The four sections of this report focus on the four cohorts listed above. Retention patterns are displayed by gender, ethnicity, minority status, citizenship, test score ranges, classification, high school quartiles, academic index, residency (on- or off-campus and county), suspension/probation status, and SOAR/Welcome Days attendance. Please note that in the tables that follow, "Withdrawn" does not refer to students who have gone through an official withdrawal process with the University. It refers to students who have not graduated and who have not enrolled for the Fall 2011 term.

A note on the Fall 2009 cohort:

While the Registrar's Office and the Office of Institutional Research and Effectiveness strive to track students accurately, there were a number of students counted in the Fall 2009 term who were not actually attending classes at the University. This is most likely true every term, but the number was higher for Fall 2009 than in previous terms. There were a total of 52 students dropped for non-attendance in Fall 2009: 22 new freshmen, 16 new transfers, and 14 continuing students. If these students were removed from the cohorts, the overall fall to fall retention rate for Fall 2009 would have been 70.2%; for new freshmen, the rate would have been 65.2%, and for new transfers the rate would have been 58.9%. Note that these are not the official retention rates and were not reported.
